EDUCATION

Dev Academy:

2023 Q4

- Certificate in Applied Software Development L6
- 15-week 900 hour software development bootcamp that mimics a real-life development team. Using the SERN stack we learned and explored all forms of testing, asynchronous techniques, RESTful APIs, GitHub and Agile deeply.
- My team made a single page web based game Guess With Less which revolved around the idea of guessing the prompts for AI generated images as they slowly become less obscured. linktosite.
